

Do you have an ITIN*?

ALERT: YOUR ITIN MAY EXPIRE ON JANUARY 1, 2018

- * ITINs with the middle digits 70, 71, 72 or 80 (i.e. 9XX-70-XXXX) will expire on January 1, 2018.
- * ITINs that have not been used on a tax return in the last three years (2014, 2015, or 2016) will expire on January 1, 2018.
- * ITINs with the middle digits 78 or 79 (i.e. 9XX-78-XXXX) expired on January 1, 2017.

If you or someone on your tax return (i.e. spouse, dependent) has an ITIN that is expiring, that ITIN should be renewed before you file your return.

DON'T WAIT – CALL FOR AN APPOINTMENT TODAY

Failure to renew expiring ITINs before filing your 2017 tax return will result in delayed refunds and the disallowance of federal tax credits, which may reduce your tax refund amount or increase the amount you may owe the federal government.

Free ITIN renewal services are now available:

LADDER<sup>up</sup>

PROVIDING POSSIBILITIES

(312) 995-1140

ITIN@goladderup.org

www.goladderup.org/ITIN

Ladder Up offers free ITIN renewal assistance to families earning up to $55,000 and individuals earning up to $30,000 annually. Capacity is limited and appointments will be made on a first come, first served basis.

*Individual Taxpayer Identification Number